

John Lewis Sponsors The Junction's Annual Christmas Party, Spreading Holiday Cheer to High Wycombe's Young People

The John Lewis store in High Wycombe is generously sponsoring Action4Youth's youth centre, The Junctions', Christmas Party this year.

The Junction welcomes over 300 young people, aged 11-18, every month offering a range of sessions and activities all in one place at the top of the High Wycombe Library.

The sponsorship from John Lewis will provide a festive celebration filled with fun, delicious food, and gifts for the young people.

Junction Manager Paul Dyne said – “Having a Christmas Party creates a sense of belonging and joy for the young people and they can just have fun and enjoy themselves”.

The Christmas Party sponsorship means that The Junction can create a memorable experience for the young people in High Wycombe this festive season.

John Lewis recognises the importance of spreading holiday cheer, especially to those facing challenges during the festive season.

This year's Christmas Party will take place on 22nd December at The Junction on the top floor of the High Wycombe Library.
