

Local Young People Can Experience The Benefits of The Great Outdoors This Easter Holiday

Young people aged between 8-16 years old can spend an unforgettable Easter break at Action4Youth Adventure Clubs!

Join us at The Caldecotte Xperience for an action-packed holiday activity programme that promises to be fun, exciting, and filled with opportunities to make friends and learn new skills.

Young adventurers can unleash their potential and have a blast at The Caldecotte Xperience. Our holiday programme is designed to challenge participants, foster new skills, and create lasting memories with a range of activities from sailing to caving, archery to high ropes, climbing and abseiling; there's something for everyone.

Centre Manager Rich Wyatt explains “In our fast-paced, technology-driven world, it’s crucial to get outside and recognise the importance of outdoor play for children’s development. The Caldecotte Xperience champions the benefits of outdoor play and adventure.”

Don’t miss out on this opportunity this Easter holiday – sure to be filled with excitement, learning, and friendship.

Register now for the Action4Youth Adventure Clubs at The Caldecotte Xperience and make this holiday one to remember!
